ASSC Bylaw #5 – The Fog Policy

Section 1 The FOG is a campus publication (not the school newspaper) put out by the Associated Students of Skyline College Governing Council to inform the campus population of events, activities, announcements, and issues related to Skyline College. It may also contain student and staff creative writing pieces; however the publications should not contain only creative writing.

Section 2 The FOG is an optional publication and will be maintained "as long as" or "when" there is student staff to accomplish the task of producing the publication on a regular basis, not less than once a month and not more than twice a month.

Section 3 The FOG is managed by the ASSC Governing Council. A voting member of the ASSC Governing Council will be appointed as the Editor-in-Chief of the publication and the term shall correspond to those of the Executive Council.
Section 4  Any currently enrolled Skyline College student may submit material to the FOG publication. The FOG staff retains the right to choose material for publication. Furthermore, the FOG staff retains the right to edit any and all material submitted for publication.

Section 5  All articles must be accompanied by the author's signature and student identification number. The author may request to use a pen name on the published article. The use of a pen name must be approved by the FOG staff. If a pen name is permitted and injury is made, the author's real identity will be disclosed.

Section 6  The ASSC will bear responsibility for all costs related to the publication and distribution of the FOG.

Section 7  The publication will be compatible with the policies and educational objectives of the college.

Section 8  The FOG advisor (or Coordinator of Student Activities) must be conferred with before publication. The FOG staff may appeal any decisions made by the advisor in an ASSC Governing Council meeting. Further appeal by either the ASSC Governing Council or the advisor may be taken up with the appropriate administrator.

Section 9  A calendar will be established in the beginning of each semester by the FOG staff.

Section 10  The FOG publication will not eliminate the SKYLINES publication.

Section 11  The original FOG logo produced by Matt Coe shall be the official logo and will be used on all covers.

Section 12  Advertisements may be woven in with the copy as long as the number of ads does not exceed the number of pages (cover not included). Pricing is as follows:
