During the orientation luncheon, logistics are reviewed in a group setting. It helps employees get acquainted with each other before the event.

A group email is sent to confirm the employees’ participation along with the dates for the orientation and debrief meeting.

Any questions an employee may have, once an employee is selected to attend MOTGROUP27, HR contacts each individual employee to gather contact information and answer their questions.

Process:

Board of Trustees:

Employees should not utilize their own accrued leave for such a trip as vacation leave. This is part of work and approved by our this training.

An orientation lunch (before traveling) and debrief breakfast (immediately after returning from traveling) is provided as part of the training.

The district makes an effort to accommodate dietary/special accommodation needs.

The employee.

The HR department coordinates all logistics for each employee that includes meals, transportation, and lodging at no charge to the employee.

FAQ:

Their probationary period in order to participate.

Some of you have already been notified, which I will provide to you in a separate email. As a reminder, newly hired employees must pass information immediately if your group contact has changed.

Our next Museum of Tolerance Group Z2 Traveling to Los Angeles for our diversity training program this year will be held Sunday, October 22 through Thursday, October 26.
Throughout the years and in making this amazing trip a success, please feel free to contact me if you have any questions. Please be sure to provide a final listing of your selected participants by Friday, September 7th. Thank you again for your support.

If you can hold the campus held, that is relevant to their MOET experience. Feedback to how their experience will shape their life going forward. In addition, employees will discuss potential events and training.

The morning after the Group returns, there is a detailed breakfast meeting. Employees will share their MOET experience and provide.
The SMCDD has long been recognized as

Background
Participation

Overview

Proprietary for educational leadership workshops focusing on cultural inclusion, collaborative strategies, and innovative approaches to developing leaders and increasing diversity and equity on educational settings.

Explore how key themes can be applied in educational settings.

Train a national team of professionals on key themes.

The goal of Tools for Tolerance is to support the creation and management of an educational program.

Leaders of San Mateo County Community College District's Institute for Community College Leadership, a program based on the Misson Hill Advanced Learning Center, an internationally recognized and participatory educational arm of the Misson Hill Foundation, is a program of the Museum of Tolerance, San Francisco.

Term: 4.5 years

Participants:

- Chancellor's Office
- Skyline College
- Seventy-five employees from San Mateo College
- Sixty-five employees from Canada College
- Twenty employees from LAUSD
- Twenty employees from LAUSD
- Total of 20 employees

Fall in Los Angeles

NOT training is held

Objectives of the Program

- To develop leaders and increase diversity and equity on educational settings.
- To explore how key themes can be applied in educational settings.
- To train a national team of professionals on key themes.
- To support the creation and management of an educational program.