Distance Education
Peer Review Taskforce

Distance Education Team
Center of Transformative Teaching and Learning
Academic Support & Learning Technologies
Skyline College Commitment

Skyline College is committed to serving our students with high-quality courses from all disciplines no matter the mode of instruction through transformative teaching and learning.

The DE Peer Review Taskforce

The Skyline College Distance Education Team is launching a pilot to discover how peer review can create a space where faculty can collaborate, design, and investigate the great work happening in online and hybrid courses.
Why Peer Review?

★ Enables building community atmosphere among faculty
  ○ Jones & Gallen, 2016

★ Cultivates greater faculty experimentation and rigor
  ○ Roberts & Shambrook, 2012
  ○ LaPrade, Gilpatrick, & Perkins, 2014

★ Improves faculty approaches to teaching
  ○ Donnelli-Salle & Autry, 2015
  ○ Gibson & Dunning, 2012
Conceptualizing the Peer Review Taskforce

Faculty volunteers course for Review → Lead Reviewer → Peer Review Faculty → Faculty receives Peer Review Feedback

OEI Rubric

Qualitative Data Collection with Peer Review Team & Faculty who volunteered courses
Benefits of DE Peer

For Reviewers
★ Increase understanding of the OEI Rubric
★ Cultivate articulating feedback to colleagues
★ Interdisciplinary collaboration with Skyline colleagues

For Reviewees
★ Receive peer feedback on their course to help future course design
★ Interdisciplinary collaboration with Skyline colleagues
DE Peer Review Taskforce Timeline

January 2020
• Launch Peer Review Taskforce

February 2020
• Peer Online Course Review Training (@One)

March 2020
• DE Peer review teams review first set of courses

April 2020
• DE Peer Review Teams review second set of courses

May 2020
• Survey faculty who volunteered their courses to be reviewed. Focus group with peer reviewers
• Reflection & Wrap Up
Contact DE Team

Christopher J. Collins
Distance Education Coordinator & History Instructor
Phone: (650)738-7901 | Email: collinsc@smccd.edu

Ricardo Flores
Instructional Technologist
Phone: (650)738-7147 | Email: floresr@smccd.edu

Rolin Moe
Dean, Academic Support & Learning Technologies
Phone: (650)738-7149 | Email: moer@smccd.edu

Bianca Rowden-Quince
Instructional Designer
Phone: (650)738-4296 | Email: rowdenquinceb@smccd.edu
Works Cited

