Hello Colleagues,

The February Rostrum is now available on the ASCCC website. The purpose of the Senate Rostrum is to keep members apprised of the latest developments throughout the Academic Senate and the greater field. Please share this publication widely with your college constituents – faculty, administrators, and staff. The publication will soon be disseminated to colleges in hard copy form. Featured articles include:

- Accreditation Reform and the Warren Bill
- Guided Pathways: One Professor’s Response to Redesigning America’s Community Colleges
- Participatory Governance in the Face of Initiative Fatigue
- Understanding and Navigating the Equivalency Process: A CTE Faculty Perspective
- SP Grading – Huge Win for Noncredit
- Can You Hear Us Now? Community Colleges and the Campus Pride Index
- If You Have Questions, We Have Answers
- The Disciplines List Revision Process is Now Annual and Starts Now
- Developing Guided Pathways: The Importance of Faculty Voice and Leadership
- Apprenticeship Programs in the California Community Colleges: A Primer

For more information about the Rostrum or general feedback, please contact: info@asccc.org

Enjoy!
