

Part C: Organization of the Self-Evaluation Process: Accreditation Steering Committee

The graphic below summarizes the major steps in creating this Institutional Self-Evaluation Report. Over 200 faculty, staff, administrators and students participated on writing teams, as resources, in open forums, and through governance committees.

The Accreditation Steering Committee spearheaded efforts to draft the Institutional Self-Evaluation Report (ISER), though numerous faculty, staff, and administrators participated as writers, consultants, and reviewers, and by way of participatory governance and forums.
