

Regina Stanback Stroud, Ed.D

As President of Skyline College, Dr. Regina Stanback Stroud is committed to upholding the college's mission to empower and transform a global community of learners, ensuring the college is student-ready and maximizes its impact to students, faculty, staff and the community it serves.

Dr. Stanback Stroud has dedicated her professional career to using her position of influence and consequence to shape institutions by leading with integrity and a deliberate focus on issues of equity and student empowerment. Her broad educational experience began as a professor of nursing at Santa Anna College and then moved into administration as the Dean of Workforce and Economic Development at Mission College before becoming the Vice President of Instruction at Skyline College. Her experience in state policy includes serving a term as the President of the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges.

In 2016, Dr. Stanback Stroud was appointed by President Barack Obama to the President's Advisory Council on Financial Capability for Young Americans to make recommendations on strategies and policies to improve the financial well-being of young people.

Dr. Stanback Stroud holds a Doctorate of Education in Educational Leadership (Mills College), a Bachelor's Degree in Nursing Sciences (Howard University), a Master's Degree in Human Relations (Golden Gate University) and a Master's Degree in Educational Leadership (Mills College).