

OSCAR RAMOS

I am an elementary school teacher. I have been teaching in the Salinas Valley for 25 years. My passion is working with farm workers and migrant families. The work I've done in this area has been featured in multiple media outlets, the New York Times, and in the PBS documentary East of Salinas. I've received multiple awards and recognitions over the years, including the California Teachers Association's Cesar Chavez Human Rights Award. Future projects include another PBS documentary titled Beyond Salinas and becoming my district's Migrant Program Coordinator.
