FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SUCCESS SUMMIT TO BE HELD FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 23, 2016
JOIN COMMUNITY LEADERS AS THEY CONVENE ON
INNOVATIVE STRATEGIES TO ADDRESS LOCAL ISSUES

San Bruno, California – September 2, 2016: The President's Council of Skyline College is inviting community leaders from the public, private and nonprofit sectors together to engage in participatory sessions focused on issues of importance to the economic vibrancy of the northern peninsula. The Success Summit, will be held on Friday, September 23, 2016 at Skyline College from 8:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Business and community leaders, and the general public are invited to register at skylinesuccesssummit.com. The registration fee is $75 per participant for the half-day forum.

Attendees will have the opportunity to add their voice to the conversation, contributing their perspective and sharing solutions to address local issues. Breakout topics for the 2016 Success Summit include:

- Affordable Higher Education -- How do we prepare people for the workforce without incurring mountains of debt?
- Housing and Transportation -- Getting to "Yes" - Working together to address barriers to housing.
- Economic Development in our Cities

-More-

The morning will begin with remarks by State Assemblymember Kevin Mullin. He will introduce San Mateo County District 5 Supervisor Adrienne Tissier, who will share insight into north San Mateo County, which she has represented as Supervisor since 2005.

Event sponsors include Skyline College, First National Bank, Pacific Gas & Electric, San Mateo County Economic Development Association, YouTube, Duggan's Serra Mortuary, Nibbi Brothers General Contractors, Recology of San Bruno, San Mateo County/Silicon Valley Convention & Visitor's Bureau, and San Mateo Credit Union. Sponsorship opportunities are still available for organizations who would like to partner in this cutting edge community event.
