FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SUCCESS SUMMIT TO BE HELD FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 25, 2015
JOIN COMMUNITY LEADERS AS THEY CONVENE TO SHAPE INNOVATIVE STRATEGIES ON LOCAL ISSUES

San Bruno, California – August 6, 2015: The President's Council of Skyline College is bringing community leaders from the public, private and nonprofit sectors together to engage in participatory sessions focused on issues of importance to the economic vibrancy of the northern peninsula. The half-day forum, Summit, will be held on Friday, September 25, 2015 at Skyline College from 8:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. The public is invited to register to participate at skylinesuccesssummit.com. The registration fee is $75 per participant.

Attendees will have the opportunity to add their voice to the conversation, contributing their perspective and sharing solutions to shape innovative forward movement. Breakout topics for the 2015 Summit include Housing in North County - Success Stories, City Manager Roundtable and Transportation. Successful outcomes from the ongoing focus will be tracked and reported on at subsequent events.

Sponsorship opportunities are available for organizations who would like to partner in this cutting edge community event. Event sponsors include Skyline College, Pacific Gas & Electric, First National Bank, San Mateo Credit Union, Recology of San Bruno, CA State Assemblymember Kevin Mullin's Office, San Mateo County/Silicon Valley Convention & Visitor's Bureau and San Mateo County Economic Development Association. To learn about sponsorship opportunities or to register for the Summit, please visit skylinesuccesssummit.com.
