8th President's Breakfast to be held April 1

Each year the President's Council raises funds for the President's Innovation Fund through the breakfast. About 300 people attended last year and enjoyed seeing the annual video of our Innovation Projects, hearing a couple of students speak and sharing breakfast. College faculty and staff are welcome to join the many community members who come to support the college.

Transfer Leadership Study interviewers come to Skyline

Skyline College was selected as one of seven colleges in the state to participate a grant-funded project that is focused on best practices of transfer programs and services at California community colleges. Skyline was identified as having better than expected transfer rates according to a study that was conducted in 2005/06 by the California Community College Chancellor's Office. The purpose of the Transfer Leadership Study is to better understand the range of factors that positively impact transfer and to identify best practices. This week many faculty, staff and students were interviewed and/or participated in focus groups that were led by two external researchers from the Transfer Leadership Study project. The project will wrap up toward the end of the year with a comprehensive report of the findings and recommendations for best practices in transfer. We are proud to be a part of this study and look forward to the final report.

Skyline student selected as Genentech Scholar

Skyline Student Kahee “Joanne” Jo has been selected as this year’s Genentech Scholar. The Genentech Scholars is a prestigious scholarship program that includes a $7500 scholarship, a research mentor, and a summer position at the Biotechnology facility in South San Francisco. Joanne, a tutor for the Mathematics Engineering and Science Achievement Program (MESA) and Vice President for Phi Theta Kappa, plans to transfer to UC Berkeley this fall to study microbiology.

ECE Department launches new course in Children’s Literature

The Early Childhood Education in the Business Division and the Literature Department (Language Arts Division) joined forces this term to offer a new course in Children’s Literature. New adjunct faculty member Tracy Heffernan, a San Francisco Children’s Librarian, is teaching the weekly class. It is a rousing success and follows on the heels of another successful collaboration between ECE and the San Mateo County Office of Education to offer a unit-bearing series of workshops about Language and Literacy Development that included an address by Professor Lily Wong Fillmore of UC/ Berkeley. Adjunct ECE faculty member Soodie Ansari will be offering a short course in supporting young bilingual learners as a follow-up next fall.

Skyline’s first Alumni Mixer coming next Thursday, Feb. 21, 5:30-7:00 pm, Student Center

Skyline, in addition to the President’s Council, is hosting an Alumni Mixer from 5:30-7:00 p.m., Thursday, Feb. 21 in the Student and Community Center. We’ve invited our alumni to experience Skyline’s warm and welcoming expanded and renovated campus! Please invite students with whom you still keep in touch and feel free to attend! To RSVP by Feb. 14 for yourself and/or alumni, please call 738-4325 or email skyalumni@smccd.edu. If you want to be sure that a particular group of students with whom you are in contact are informed about this event, please contact Sandy Irber at lrber@smccd.edu. Here is the postcard we sent out with “then and now” photos of Skyline students in our programs.

ASSC to be recognized by Second Harvest Food Bank

This fall, ASSC undertook a project to help provide food to people in need. Their work will be recognized at the Second Harvest Food Bank Annual Awards Event in March. ASSC collected 1565 pounds of donated food and nearly $500 as well.

Automotive Department renews T-TEN Program

The Skyline Automotive Program has just renewed their annual agreement with Toyota Corporation which enables them to continue offering to students the Toyota T-TEN Program. This program has been a part of Skyline College Automotive Department for the past 20 years. The Automotive Department is awaiting delivery of four 2007 KIA vehicles for the Automotive Training program. On April 25 and 26, the Department will host the California Automotive Teachers (CAT) Conference which draws 150 to 180 automotive instructors from the state of California.

Study on reducing campus environmental smoke exposure to be conducted at Skyline

As part of his San Francisco State University program for a master's degree in Public Health, Ray Hernandez will be conducted a study on reducing campus environmental smoke exposure. The purpose of the study is to "better understand the prevalence and perceptions of smoking among students and employees at Skyline College and to identify components of an effective policy aimed at reducing exposure to environmental tobacco smoke on campus." Recommendations derived from this assessment will be used by our Health and Safety Committee and the College Council to assist us with our work on campus smoking policy. The research project has been approved by our Research Committee and will include an electronic survey of students and of employees next week. There will also be interviews conducted.

Institutional Planning Committee update: The IPC met for the first time this spring semester on Wednesday, Feb. 13th from 2:00-4:00. Updates on a number of projects at Skyline were discussed including: the Transfer Leadership Study, the Website Redesign Project, the upcoming Community College Survey of Student Engagement, the employee and student surveys on Skyline's smoking policy, the college's reaffirmation of its accreditation, and the Design/Build project. The IPC also spent time reviewing the new Enrollment Management Plan and its companion Integration Matrix which aligns six of Skyline's major plans and initiatives to help prioritize and coordinate resources. Finally, the IPC discussed the newly implemented Basic Skills Research Agenda and the research that is slated for the spring semester. The next IPC meeting is scheduled for March 12th from 2:00-4:00 in Room 5131.
