

2019-20 Student Life and Leadership Development Annual Program Plan

I.A. Program Profile: Purpose

Describe the program(s) to be reviewed. What is the purpose of the program and how does it contribute to the mission of Skyline College?

Narrative

The Center for Student Life and Leadership Development is an integral part of the campus community. The staff strives to create an environment that promotes:

1. academic and personal success
2. develop a sense of civic responsibility
3. an understanding of equity and social justice.

The Center for Student Life and Leadership Development aids individuals and student organizations in the planning, management and evaluation of programs and organizational activities towards address various students needs. We create intentional involvement and learning opportunities for students through co-curricular education and leadership opportunities.

Values:

- Enhance self-awareness and intellectual development through direct application of co-curricular programs and leadership opportunities that focus on development of a sense of civic responsibility and social justice
- Support students and student groups in their self-directed activities and events
- Prepare students for community leadership and citizenship after graduation or transferring
- Provide an environment which enables students to understand their social responsibilities and realize their individual potential
- Create an environment that is welcoming of the board range of individual experiences and is rooted in equity and social justice
- Provide many points of entry to ensure that developmental experiences are tailored to meet the individual needs of each student

I.B. Program Planning Team

Annual program planning is intended to be a collaborative process which promotes dialogue and reflection. Please identify all individuals who contributed to or shaped the narrative. Include names and the title or role of each person.

Narrative

The following individuals and groups participate in the development of the Annual Program Plan

Luis Escobar, Dean of Counseling and Matriculation

Alvin Gubatina, Student Life & Leadership Manager

Ryan Sam, Student Life and Leadership Assistant

Associated Student of Skyline College

Skyline Organization and Club Council

Keeping in line with the philosophy and values of the Skyline College Redesign, the CSLLD works in collaboration with the Community of Practice for Service Learning, Promise Scholars Program, TRiO, Health Services and other programs and divisions to foster innovation, creativity, development and effective resource management.

Associated Objectives

941-Implementation of Leadership Development Plan

II.A. Analysis: Progress on Prior Program Objectives (Goals) and Activities

Describe the progress made on previously established program objectives (goals) including identification of achievements or areas in which further effort is needed. New programs which have not yet established CPR/APP objectives should discuss progress on program implementation or activities.

Narrative

The Center for Student Life and Leadership Development has been able to reach its goals for the following:

- Continued development and evaluation of PSLO's
- Continued expansion of SOCC training through social media and online resources
- Collaborative creation, development and evaluation of the Student Leadership and Equity Summit and Leadership Academy
- Collaboration with Service Learning Community of Practice team with Community Day of Action projects May of 2018 and April of 2019 and further planning on the implementation of Service Learning Model at Skyline College.
- Evaluation of Advisor survey results

The members of the department have been participants in the college redesign process and have helped to ensure that the student voice was also included.

Throughout these processes, we have had the opportunity to begin the collaborative process with other constituents that will help ensure the best use of resources as we move forward as a college and enable us to create an innovative and effective program.

The Center for Student Life and Leadership Development has begun an update of the departments Leadership Development Plan. We continue to develop and expand the training for student organizations and their advisors. The CSLLD has collected information from club advisors and continue to research best practices to develop a more robust training program for advisors and clubs. The following are suggestion for expansion of the training for the Student Organizations and Clubs Council and their advisors.

- Continued Expansion of ASSC and SOCC training
- Creating a Student Organization Leadership Retreat / Leadership Institute
- Advisor trainings using digital resources/programs to connect with students

II.B. Analysis: Program Environment

Describe any recent external or internal changes impacting the program or which are expected to impact the program in the next year. Please include when the specified changes occurred or are expected to occur.

Narrative

The Center for Student Life and Leadership Development is currently in the process of updating Leadership Development Plan as part of the College Redesign.

In addition, High Impact Practices such as service learning and civic engagement should involve the CSSLD staff. The Director is currently engaged in the Service Learning Community of Practice and assisting with the development of the program.

The Student Leadership and Equity Summit / Leadership Academies was created and implemented by former Director of Student Development – Amory Cariadus, the TRiO Director – Michael Stokes and the Director of the Promise Program – Ellen Murray, for the ASSC and other clubs during the 2018- 2019 academic year. The series provided an opportunity for students throughout SMCCCD to increase their understanding of equity and further develop their leadership skills. The team’s evaluation process consisted of traditional feedback surveys from student participants and a focus group for those who completed the series. The 2018-2019 series was designed for current student leaders and student employees but the sessions for 2019-2020 will be open to all students who are registered at Skyline College.

However, there have been two events that have affected the sessions for 2019-2020. The first instance is the transition from former director Amory Cariadus to, at that time, interim manager Alvin Gubatina. In this transition – Amory’s knowledge and vision for this project was lost while Alvin’s, then, interim role led him to play a more supportive role in assisting Michael and Ellen with their vision for the project in the Spring.

After Alvin secured the permanent position and was planning with Michael and Ellen on the Spring programming – COVID19 happened. COVID19 essentially wiped out all campus programming for the Spring term.

Additional training for student representatives will be needed and plans for future expansion to revitalization of leadership development programs, Service Learning Programs, and a certificate program will require additional manpower and training time. We continue to review distribution of duties and other staffing options (interns and graduate assistants) to help with this issue.

II.C. Analysis: Student Learning Outcomes (SLOs and PSLOs)

- (1) Instructional Programs Only: Describe what was learned from the assessment of course SLOs for the current and past year.
- (2) Student Service Programs Only: If PSLOs are being assessed this year (3-year cycle), describe what was learned. If no assessment was done because this is an off-cycle year, please state that this item is not applicable.

Narrative

There was no assessment done this year because it is an off-cycle year.

Unofficially – we are continuing to make progress with our SLOs.

SLO #1: The ASSC Governing Council will understand the College and District Participatory Governance process

From speaking with students regarding their experience in ASSC and participatory governance – ASSC members have consistently met this criterion.

This SLO will remain a constant since because membership of the student government organization changes every academic year – new year = new students.

ASSC members have consistently met the criteria.

SLO#2: The ASSC Governing Council and SOCC members will understand event planning policies and procedures, and manage a budget to stage effective events on campus.

This SLO is designed to help enhance student life at Skyline College by providing student groups and the ASSC with the training and tools needs to:

- create intentional and impactful programming
- plan and coordinate detailed programming plans
- facilitate and execute programming plans
- reflect and evaluate programming plans

Online tools, surveys, and event planning curriculum have been developed by Alvin Gubatina to help train and assist students.

While students have an overall understanding of the SLO and have met the criteria; issues with AD ASTRA and the transitions of on campus staff have caused communication issues between student clubs, ASSC, Center for Student Life and Leadership Development and Administrative services.

Then with COVID19 driving all programming to the virtual space – CSLLD and ASSC have been able to create virtual programming.

Associated Objectives

III.A. Reflection: Considering Key Findings

Consider the previous analysis of progress achieved, program environment, and course-level SLOs or PSLOs (if applicable). What are the key findings and/or conclusions drawn? Discuss how what was learned can be used to improve the program's effectiveness.

Narrative

The Center for Student Life and Leadership Development is centered around Skyline College's mission statement to empower and transform a global community of learners while also promoting the San Mateo County Community College District mission of education, leadership and celebration of cultural diversity. In addition, incorporating models of social justice, ethnic studies and barangay pedagogy has had a positive impact on students. By using incorporating different aspects from these models – ASSC students began to be more critically conscious of their education, presence on campus and impact on each other. This led to better understanding of an individuals' rights in a democratic society, the role of the individual in exercising those rights and advocating for themselves and others.

For the future, the CSLLD will:

- Continue the expansion of student leadership opportunities
- Student Equity and Leadership Summit (all students)
- Leadership Academy
- Intercultural Center
- College Lecture Series
- Formal recognition of leadership of students and student groups
- Student Leadership Recognition Ceremony

Develop and expand the training for student organizations and their advisors to include but not limited to

- Expansion of advisor training
- Student led workshops for advisors and other students
- Student Organization Leadership Retreat / Leadership Institute

The CSLLD has had the opportunity to collaborative with other constituents on campus and continues to build partners and connections to ensure the best use of resources as we move forward as a college. This has resulted in a continued expansion and revitalization of leadership development programs and possibly a certificate program and service learning programs in the future which will require additional manpower and training time.

We continue to review distribution of duties and other staffing options (interns and graduate assistants) to help with this issue. Despite these challenges the Center for Student Life and Leadership Development will continue to create innovative programs. We are committed to providing quality services to students, faculty and staff and continuing our role in the overall enhancement of the campus community.

III.B. Reflection: ISLOs

If your program participated in assessment of ISLOs this year:

(1) What are the findings and/or conclusions drawn?

(2) Does the program intend to make any changes or investigate further based on the findings? If so, briefly describe what the program intends to do.

Narrative

CSLLD did not participate in an assessment of ISLOs this year but we have met our SLOs for this year.

SLO #1: The ASSC Governing Council will understand the College and District Participatory Governance processes.

The Center for Student Life and Leadership Development has been working with the Associated Students of Skyline College to develop their understanding of the following items;

- understanding of the function of the committee
- historical knowledge of the committee
- how to develop mentor relationships with experienced staff, faculty and administrators that are members or chairs of the committees

The CSLLD staff believe that by increasing their knowledge base and their comfort level at committee meetings that the students will continue to increase their level of engagement in the participatory process.

Through informal conversations and check-ins with students, the CSLLD staff believe that we have met this SLO.

One student shared that, “I really enjoy and believe what you (Alvin) and Ryan (student life assistant) have done. I feel like you two prepared us to be active participants while also giving us the room to develop our own leadership.”

The CSLLD has done the following to assist the ASSC with their committee assignments:

- ASSC Members are encouraged to create binders to pass on to the next committee representative(s)
- Ensure that all student representatives have access to SharePoint and other technology needed to fully participate in the committee meetings
- Collaboration with Committee Chairs to ensure student representatives attendance and participation
- Review functions of the participatory governance committees as listed in the Skyline College Compendium of Committees with ASSC
- Review responsibilities of committee assignments

Recommendations:

- More training on committee purposes and expectations of student representatives
- Create opportunities for future student representatives to job shadow current student representatives
- Assist with ASSC with further development of mentoring relationship with professional committee members
- Continued Collaboration with Committee Chairs to ensure student representatives are receiving important committee information and any schedule changes

SLO#2: The ASSC Governing Council and SOCC members will understand event planning policies and procedures, and manage a budget to stage effective events on campus.

The CSLLD continues to evaluate this PSLO regarding event planning and community engagement. It is anticipated with additional training and tools the members of ASSC and SOCC will be able to effectively meet the goals of the SLO.

The CSLLD has done the following to educate ASSC and SOCC members about event planning process

Provided training at ASSC and SOCC meetings and to individuals on the following

- Facilities Reservation Processes
- Budget Development
- Performance Contracts
- Advertising and Marketing

Developed online tools

- Club Activity Permit
- SOCC Funding Request Form
- ASSC Funding Request Form

While students have an overall understanding of the SLO and have met the criteria; however, development of new calendaring tools (AD ASTRA) have caused communication issues between student clubs, ASSC, Center for Student Life and Leadership Development and Administrative services. A collaborative team is currently working on a solution to this problem.

We continue to develop and expand the training for student organizations and their advisors. The CSLLD has collected information from club advisors and continue to research best practices to develop a more robust training program for advisors and clubs.

The following are suggestion for expansion of the training for the Student Organizations and Clubs Council and their advisors.

- Continued Expansion of ASSC and SOCC training with implementation of Canvas
- Creating a Student Organization Leadership Retreat / Leadership Institute
- Advisor trainings on online models to better engage with students.

Associated Objectives

IV.A. Strategy for Program Enhancement: Continuation/Modification

Indicate whether the program is continuing implementation of the last CPR strategy or revising the strategy. Please describe the modifications if revisions are intended.

Note: Any new strategies should be linked to Institutional Goals through creation of objectives in the next section. If the program has not yet participated in comprehensive program review, an annual or multi-year strategy can be defined in this item.

Narrative

1. The Center for Student Life and Leadership Development will continue to evaluate the following PSLO's in accordance with the 2019-2020 cycle
SLO #1: The ASSC Governing Council will understand the College and District Participatory Governance processes.
SLO#2: The ASSC Governing Council and SOCC members will understand event planning policies and procedures, and manage a budget to stage effective events on campus.
2. the Center for Student Life and Leadership Development has begun updating and expanding its Leadership Development Plan as appropriate for the College Redesign/ Skyline College Promise

Continued expansion of student leadership opportunities

- Student Equity and Leadership Summit (all students)
 - Leadership Academy
 - Intercultural Center
 - College Lecture Series
 - Student Advocacy Board
 - Formal recognition of leadership of students and student groups
 - Student Leadership Recognition Ceremony
 - Develop and expand the training for student organizations and their advisors to include but not limited to
 - Expansion of advisor training
 - Student led workshops for advisors and other students
 - Student Organization Leadership Retreat / Leadership Institute
 - Creation and development of club benchmarks
3. Maintain effective, accessible, innovative and creative technology support services for students.
 - Further development of online resources to include training modules and interactive media. Specifically, as it relates to the Event Planning PSLO and additional training option for student groups and their advisors (see above).

The staff of the Center for Student Life and Leadership Development would like to participate in professional development activities that will help to educate and inform them of best practices in Student Affairs, leadership development, service learning and social justice. Additional professional development opportunities through organizations such as NASPA, Association of American Colleges and Universities, NCORE, Association of California Community Colleges Administrators and the Democracy Commitment
