

EQUITY TRAINING SERIES

The Skyline College Equity Training Series (ETS)

is an intentional sequence of experiences designed to equip participants with skills, strategies, and tools in the areas of pedagogy and cultural fluency. The experiences include readings, film screenings, facilitated discussions, workshops, lectures, panels, and group projects. Collectively, these experiences prepare participants for the responsibility of aiding in the professional development of their colleagues.

PARTICIPANT OUTCOMES

Faculty	Course Designed/Syllabus Reflective of Pedagogy, Theories and Practices from Equity Series.
Staff	A Poster Presentation or Slide Presentation of Incorporation of Equity Series Lessons in the Department.
Administrator	Vision, Mission and Values Statement Documents.

PARTICIPANT EXPERIENCE

All of these workshops are hosted on Friday afternoons from 12:00 P.M. - 3:00 P.M. Lunch will be provided. The first hour and a half will be the talk/workshop by the designated presenter. The last half of the session is the group discussion and planning on how to apply the new information to their work. The final session will consist of presentations sharing the planned application of the practices discussed during the training.

2019 SCHEDULE OF EXPERIENCES

January 18	Equity in Education	Lasana O. Hotep
February 8	Critical Pedagogy	Dr. Michael Benitez
February 22	Undocumented Student Support	Dr. Genevieve Negron Gonzales
March 9	White Fragility in the Academy	Dr. Robin DiAngelo
April 12	Equity in STEM Education	Dr. Jeremiah Sims
April 26	Pin@y Student Success	Dr. Allyson Tintiangco-Cubales
May 3	Disability in Higher Education	Isabel Dees
May 10	ETS Recognition Ceremony	ETS 2019 Cohor