-They did not meet this week because they have already completed the candidate packet. March 20th is when the candidate packets will be available. April 11th is when we are going to hold an informational meeting for those who want to run.

C. Conferences

-We voted to go to USSA, but unfortunately we won't be able to. It is not well organized and it seems as if far too much is up in the air. However, we have decided to find funding someplace else if we decide to go to NCSL that is March 30th- April 1st. And on top of that we can also vote to go to the Democracy Commitment which is in Baltimore from June 7th-10th and the cap for that would be $7,000 for 3 nights for 4 people.

-Dylan moved to set a $6,000 cap to send a certain amount of people to NCSL seconded by Abi. 4 abstain, 3 no, 11 yes.

-Albert moved to set an $11,000 cap to send 5 students and one advisor to Democracy Commitment in Baltimore seconded by Abi. 18 yes, 1 abstain.
